FRIDAY SEPTEMBER 15, 2006

Michael Tougias

AUTHOR | LECTURER | NEWSPAPER COLUMNIST

Mr. Tougias will discuss his newest book, "Ten Hours Until Dawn: The True Story of Heroism and Tragedy aboard the Can Do."

The book is an edge-of-your-seat portrayal of a fight for survival off the Massachusetts coast during the Blizzard of 1978.

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 13, 2006

Jane Barrientos ARTIST

Painting to "trick the eye", a school of painting formally called "trompe l'oeil", is to make objects look so realistic you'll want to reach over and touch them. This is Ms. Barrientos's specialty and she will demonstrate how it is accomplished.

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 9, 2007

Yankee Notions FOLK MUSIC

Jim Douglas and Tim Van Egmond, folksingers, feature an extensive repertoire of traditional and contemporary New England folk music accompanied by guitar, hammered dulcimer, English concertina and pennywhistle.

FRIDAY, MARCH 9, 2007

Abigail Adams

PRESENTED BY HISTORICAL ENTERTAINMENTS

Linda Myer is an impressive interpreter of Abigail Adams. She brings to life the partnership that existed between John and Abigail Adams through the letters they wrote over the years. Ms. Myer will delightfully illustrate why Abigail Adams exemplified the term "feminist" even before the word was known.

FRIDAY, APRIL 20, 2007

Judy Handler & Mark Levesque Ensemble

Back by popular demand, the Handler/Levesque Ensemble, including Genevieve Rose and Gregory Caputo, will again wow you with their guitars, mandolin, bass and drum interpretations of swing, gypsy, Brazilian and Spanish music.

SATURDAY, MAY 5, 2007, 11:00 AM

Kit and Kaboodle Productions

AT THE RED DOOR THEATRE

Jack and the Beanstalk, an audience participation play, will delight children of all ages. Join Jack as he climbs the beanstalk and confronts the Giant. Seating is by reservation. Please call 789-2026 after April 1, 2007 to reserve.
