A fourth exciting season sponsored by the
AGAWAM CULTURAL COUNCIL

2007-2008 season dedicated to Betty Kadis

FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 21, 2007 | 7:30 PM

Michael Tougias Famed author of Ten Hours Until Dawn: The True Story Of Heroism And Tragedy Aboard The Can Do will present the gripping true story of his latest book, Fatal Forecast: An Incredible True Tale of Disaster and Survival at Sea. Using slides from the actual storm and rescue, Tougias will astound you with one of the most remarkable survival stories ever recorded.

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 9, 2007 | 7:30 PM

RICHARD CLARK portrays the life and times of one of the original "bad boy" actors — John Barrymore. Clark's performance as Barrymore is a charming concoction of comedy and pathos that promises a rip-roaring rollicking good time!

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 8, 2008 | 7:30 PM

Gregory Caputo with bass, piano, and vocalist — highlights the Big Band era with world-class musicians and top-notch performances. Don't miss Caputo's legendary drumming skills as he and his Big Band ensemble "brings down the house" with the Swing and Jazz hits you love!

FRIDAY, MARCH 14, 2008 | 7:30 PM

ELINOR LIPMAN one of our favorite authors returns to Agawam to tell us all about how her book, Then She Found Me, is being made into a major motion picture. Catch a glimpse inside the movie-making industry from this witty, intelligent author's perspective.

FRIDAY, APRIL 11, 2008 | 7:30 PM

Good Acoustics direct from Agawam, this popular group performs classic acoustic favorites and vocal hits that will stir your heart and set your toes a-tappin'. A homegrown crowd-pleaser!

SATURDAY, MAY 10, 2008 | 10:30 AM

THE GERWICK PUPPETS re-awaken the wonder of storytelling through the magic of puppetry. Marvel as the troupe transforms their puppet stage into the world of Aladdin and the Magic Lamp, with music and special lighting. For children five and up (and adults, too!)
